Bishop's Address - 43rd Annual Convention

The Right Reverend Dabney T. Smith

Fifth Bishop of the Diocese of Southwest Florida

The annual diocesan convention provides a snapshot look at the diocese and a map for the journey forward. I start by thanking our preacher and chaplain, Bishop James Tengatenga. I also want to warmly welcome our new assisting bishops, the Rt. Rev. Barry Howe and the Rt. Rev. Michael Garrison. It is also my pleasure to welcome our old friend, the Rt. Rev. Julio Holguin, the bishop of the Dominican Republic.

This past year has seen some tremendous strides made in our diocesan life. It would be too lengthy a process to remark on all of the accomplishments and committee and commission functions, so I will comment on a restricted number of them.

Briefly, or as a snapshot, the plans for the new diocesan house at Dayspring are underway. We will have a ceremonial groundbreaking on Tuesday, November 8 at 1:00 pm. Actual construction will begin relatively soon afterwards and completion is expected by June of 2012.

Last year I stated that the Dayspring Steering Committee would produce a survey to be sent to the various constituencies of Dayspring. The survey would consider our conference centers programmatic and facilities present and future. That survey has been completed and the results are under evaluation at this time.

The diocese has through the work of various task forces, the finance committee and the diocesan council, developed clear financial practices, policies and tools regarding loans and endowments for diocesan planning, decisions and actions. These are held up as useful and helpful models for the use of our congregations and are available on the diocesan website. I am very proud of diocesan staff and the diocesan council for all that they have accomplished on our behalf.

The diocese has had a greater engagement with the Latino/Hispanic community in the past year. At the parish level, we have two mature congregations in Sarasota and Hillsborough counties, one startup congregation in Pinellas County and three congregations desirous of serving these communities in DeSoto, Manatee, and Charlotte counties. These congregations serve the Latino/Hispanic communities through worship, food ministries, health screenings, vacation bible schools and after school programs. At the diocesan level, this past year we have held two workshops with the Episcopal Church's Latino/Hispanic Missioner, established a strategic planning committee, and developed traveling clergy teams to celebrate major feast days to create ministry presence and serving impact.

I know that we are all proud to recognize the leaders and members of Iona Hope and the excellent work of Fr. John Adler. This morning we will have the joyful opportunity of celebrating their achievement of attaining Parish status.

I am pleased to announce the work of the Episcopal Charities Fund. First, various monies were collected and distributed by the Episcopal Charities Fund during the past year as "pass through" payments equaling $55,361 for the Dominican Challenge, Nets for Life, and Japan Tsunami Relief.

The First Annual Grants recommended by the Deacons Council utilizing the grant application criteria and approved by Diocesan Council are:

- St. John's, Clearwater: $1,000 for a Youth Mission Trip working with people living in extreme poverty.
- St. David's, Englewood: $1,000 for a program called Back Pack for Kids
- Hope for Justice, Tampa: $5,000 for a community training organization founded by St. James House of Prayer
- Haitian Congregation of St. Paul's, Naples: $1,000 for a children's literacy program
- Cornerstone Kids: $5,000 for an after school education program for at risk children (K to 2nd grade) at St. James House of Prayer
- Amazing Love Healing Ministry: $3,125 as a matching fund for scholarship requests
- St. Georges Food Pantry, Bradenton: $3,855 to replace appliances for their work with Manatee County food distributors
- St. Mary's, Palmetto: $2,500 for an After School Tutoring program
- All Saints, Tarpon Springs: $1,000 for their Grace Chapel Homeless Daycare

A total of $23,480!

I thank all who participated in the first Bishops Annual Appeal. I also specifically thank Canon Chris Gray and the Diocesan Finance Committee for building up the Episcopal Charities Fund so as to make these grants. We began the asking at diocesan convention in 2008 for the Episcopal Charities Fund to be developed. I have said that I will keep asking to make this ministry endowment fund strong. We have reached a milestone year. There will now be more grants made every year!! Thank you for creating this legacy.

The theme for this 43rd annual convention of the Diocese of Southwest Florida is "Walk in Love." The phrase is from the letter to the Ephesians and reads, "Therefore, be imitators of God, as beloved children, and live in love, as Christ loved us and gave himself up for us, a fragrant offering and sacrifice to God." The phrase "live in love" is literally "walk in love" and is an exhortation to God's Household, the Church on how our individual and corporate character is to be intentionally shaped and directed by God's character in Christ. Congregations and their members are then to be intentional in the giving of their lives as a living sacrifice to God.

One of the functions of diocesan program is to be a resource for the congregations so that intentional "walking in love" living may be generated and matured. We have been working recently within the broad topic of leadership development through the Fresh Start offerings, the annual vestry retreat, and clergy conferences. The clergy have concentrated recently on the topics of lifelong Faith Formation and Strategic planning. Ask them about the book "Holy Conversations" for strategic planning.

Today I want to provide multiple resources to each congregation to spark richer holy conversations to generate mission planning and implementation.

Last year I noted that we are positioned well to do a new congregation plant. The Congregation Development Committee is energetically exploring that purpose. The first necessary material needed in clear decision making for Congregation development strategy is comprehensive demographic information. The first resource to provide this, is the Mission Insight website, as of today now made available to all the congregations of Southwest Florida. You will find the registration material on www.missioninsite.com. The diocesan agency account number will grant access to predefined reports and the ability to create custom reports for your congregation. You will have access to support videos, documents, practical ministry application suggestions, and the ability to plot your members and visitors for current and future ministry analysis.

The next resources are two simple planning tools, one of which I briefly showed the gathered leaders at May's vestry retreat. They are both available on our newly designed diocesan website formally launched for this convention. You will find them under congregational development. The first is a simple energy life-cycle tool to assist in thinking about any and all congregational ministries. Its purpose is to seek and state where energy is and where energy is not in any congregational activity. For example, St. Jude's may have once been very energized about youth ministry and they still keep putting their resources into it. The problem is St. Jude's' is now surrounded by retirement communities and the congregation is energized by health faire ministries. Ask: "Where is the energy in my congregation?"

The second simple planning tool is a vision planning reality check tool. It simply asks you to think about what you would like to do by first stating fearlessly where you really are. Then consider the steps necessary to close the gap between present reality and desired future.

As a final point, at each congregation's table is a book titled Church Wellness. I ask each congregation to designate a lay leader to read it first and then pass it around to other leaders, clergy and lay. The book does not provide the answer to every congregational issue and it is not comprehensive. The book does, though provide helpful categories for congregational life observation, thinking, planning, and implementation. The categories include membership development, young adult ministries, spiritual development, communications strategy and others. Probably, no congregation should do everything in here. But every congregation could do one or more things mapped out in Church Wellness to improve, change, grow, and be mission minded, to walk in love. I urge all of you to do something to not only energize your own congregation, but also use the new diocesan website as a reporting tool to inform and inspire your sister congregations in the diocese.

I am challenging all congregations to grow in mission and ministry. I once said at an annual meeting of a congregation where I was rector that our goal for the next year was to add 52 new households. Over the course of the next year we missed the mark. We only added 48 new households but they added immensely to the rich dynamics of that congregation's life. The goal though was realistic, measurable and achievable. I urge you to use these resources set before you to become more vital, more purposeful, more energized, more healthy 'walking in love' congregations.

My family had the surreal experience some eleven years ago of rejoicing in gladness at our daughter Ashton's wedding and then experiencing the despair of my cousin Alicia's (my youngest daughter's namesake) funeral the next day in the same church with many of the same people. I discovered something about the Church on those two consecutive days. Not only is The Church where we seek God. The Church is the community where supreme happiness and profound sadness have the capacity to dwell together in spiritual joy.

Recent months have been a terrible journey through the valley of the shadow of death for my family. Even as the future lies as an uncertain mystery, I am reminded of the power of the Church to help people walk in love through the trials and triumphs of life. The Church across this diocese, nationally, and internationally has consistently been there helping us walk in love through the valley of the shadow of death. One bishop wrote Mary Ellen, "a community of love and strength continues to surround you." Another friend wrote me about his own family tragedy and stated, "I discovered how good and noble and kind and generous and loving Christians can be." Those sentiments are, indeed, my discovery in this time and one I hold up to this conventions gathering of Christian leaders. You are a community of love and strength that is needed in each local congregational expression for every member and every seeker in whatever they must endure or enjoy. The Baptismal community is the Household of God that we welcome people into, and is the community of love and strength.

We have the resources, the spiritual gifts, the skills, the people, the purpose and the mission of God. We are needed. You are needed to continually choose to function as the community of strength and love. You are needed to walk in love. I say this not just as your bishop. I say this to you personally.

Thank you.

   He then presented Iona-Hope Episcopal Church, Fort Myers. This congregation, seeking parish status, applied to the Committee on Congregational Development, which placed a motion before the Convention. Convention unanimously approved the motion to accept Iona-Hope as the newest parish in the Diocese of Southwest Florida, followed with welcoming applause.

   Father Adler gave a brief account of Iona-Hope's history.

   In 1998, under the leadership of The Very Rev. William Dodd, then rector of St. Michael and All Angels, permission was granted to Fort Myers Deanery, by the Diocesan Bishop, for the startup of a new mission. The Rev. John S. Adler was selected to be church planter, Vicar, and Pastor.

   The Rev. R. Bruce Ryan, rector of St. Luke's, shared with Dr. Fred Burford, Sr. where there would one day be a new mission, and Dr. Burford bought the property on Gladiolas Street, which St. Luke's later donated to Iona-Hope.

   On January 10, 1999 the congregation gathered for its initial Eucharist in the Bridge Club in Fort Myers. The new congregation met there into Holy Week 2000, after which they relocated to the current site. Today Iona-Hope has grown to more than 450 people.

   Paula Paquette, Senior Warden, thanked the Bishop, his staff, and the people of the diocese for supporting Iona-Hope so that the parish was able to come to fruition. She introduced Iona-Hope's Vestry to Convention and thanked them for their leadership and service. She announced that the vestry and people of Iona-Hope, unanimously, have called Father Adler to serve as the first rector of Iona-Hope Episcopal Church.

Canon Durning stated that we have records of our Diocesan meetings dating back to 1893, because we keep good records and, again, requested delegates who come to the microphone to please identify themselves by name and congregation so that the Secretary of Convention can have an accurate record of the transcripts.

Bishop Smith then reminded all that Canon V., Section vi. states:

> No elected members of the Council may serve at the same time on either the Standing Committee or the Congregational Development Committee.

Tampa Deanery, defending champion, contributed 1458 of these pounds, winning the cup for the second year, contributing more than twice Clearwater and Venice combined. Holy Innocents', Valrico, again, contributed more than any other congregation.

This food will help supply food pantries at St. Edmund's, Arcadia, and St. George's, Bradenton.

Judy Stark also asked Convention attendees to complete and turn in feedback forms to help the Convention Committee evaluate the Convention, and to help improve our next Convention.

19. Report of the Treasurer and Budget Presentation ..... Anne Vickers, CFO

Chief Financial Officer Anne Vickers opened her presentation with an orientation of the purpose of the Report of the Treasurer to Convention. Specifically, the canons call for the Treasurer to present five reports to the members of Convention. These reports are included in the Convention Guidebook and diocesan website.

1. Parochial Report Analysis
– (page 31) This analysis presents the combined parochial report figures of all 77 churches for the years 2009 and 2010, and evidences that our diocese is a function of our individual churches.

2. 2012 Apportionment Schedule
– (page 27-30) This schedule details how we fund the annual diocesan budget by listing the 2012 apportionment amounts and is available for each church to be used in their 2012 budgeting.

3. Reports of Activities of Council
– (www.episcopalswfl.org) The formal record (minutes) of all Diocesan Council decisions through the year are available on the diocesan website.

4. Audited financial statements – (www.episcopalswfl.org) The independent audit of the diocesan finances is available on the diocesan website and is an important symbol of the confirmed accuracy of what we are doing.

5. The 2012 Diocesan Budget
– The diocesan budget has been developed since May, with the continual detailed review and input by many groups including: Diocesan Council, Finance Committee, committee chairs, diocesan staff, clericus meetings, Vestry meetings and individuals. In September at the deanery convocation meetings, we purposefully presented the budget with an educational style so that the delegates would understand and have time to get to know the budget in preparation for voting at Convention.

The Operating Budget has apportionment income of $2,800,000. We are fortunate to have additional income of $221,993 contributed to our operating budget from our endowment. The total income is approximately $3,000,000. Expenses of $3,000,000 make for a balanced budget.

The Capital Budget is presented in combination with our cash reserves. Starting the year with $2.5 million, projecting inflow of $262,964 related to the sale of our Merchant Court office, and expending $1.4 million in the construction of the new Diocesan House at DaySpring, leaves $1.3 million of reserves at year end.

The Designated Funds include the Revolving Loan Fund, Mission Fund, Episcopal Charities Endowment, and DaySpring Endowment totaling $5.4 million with $171,645 to be distributed in 2012. In the past two months, the Revolving Loan Fund has loaned $412,000 to four of our churches.

The Restricted Funds of $6.3 million support a variety of areas of the budget such as congregation loans to theological education and the elderly with their $207,089 distribution in 2012.

In addition to the numbers, we also want to reflect on what the budget means in this 2012 year as a church and diocese. The first step towards growth and effectiveness in mission is accuracy and transparency. With the better understanding of ourselves, we better coordinate and articulate plans. The ability to focus and allocate resources to the plans improves our responsiveness in a complex environment. At its best the function and finances of our diocese become the quiet, strong foundation; and the true life of the diocese comes alive.

The themes that come alive out of our current diocesan budget include relationships among churches and the diocese with a fuller participation in apportionment and leadership development. The relationship between the past, present and future resources is emphasized with sustainable budgeting and endowment funds. Resources and innovative tools for congregational development, such as website and demographic study tools are shared with you.

It is not just diocesan budget that determines the course of 2012, but your congregation budget. It is not just diocesan policies and financial reporting , but your accounting and how you perform your fiduciary responsibilities. It is not just the diocesan office or even diocesan committee view of demographic data and possibilities, but what you see in your local community. And it is not just the decisions of Convention or Council, but each decision that your Vestry makes, that your congregation participates in, and that your community reacts to.

This budget, these tools, our service to you exists for this purpose. And the success of what each of us does affects how we 'walk in love' as a church.

It was moved and seconded to approve the budget. Discussion followed.

The Rev. John Hiers, Church of the Ascension, Clearwater gave thanks for all the hard work on our budget, and then moved to amend it. He began, "On page 21, Expenses Beyond the Diocese, 585-010 Episcopal Church Asking, our budget suggests that in response to the asking we give 483,000 plus. The amendment is as follows and, if seconded , I will speak to it:

I move to reduce the 483,489 figure to a 10% tithe of our budget, which is $326,000 – that money left over is to be spent at the discretion of Diocesan Council."

The motion was seconded.

Father Hiers continued, "The Episcopal Church has an asking; it's not an assessment. Across the Episcopal Church we range from 7-21% of our budget. That is given to us, for we are part of the national church. The Diocese of Southwest Florida has, for the last four General Conventions, been asking the church to go from 10% from the parishioners to the parish, 10% from the parish to the diocese, and 10% from the diocese to the national Church and, so, that is my recommendation."

Bishop Smith restated this, saying, "The amendment is for Convention to reduce the line item 585-010 from $483,489 to $326,000."

Canon Durning asked whether the rules of debate apply for this discussion, in which case the speakers would be limited to two minutes each. The Bishop's response was in the affirmative.

The Rev. Michael Rowe, St. Mary's, Bonita Springs, stated that in past he had voted for the amendment because he thinks the discussion deserves real attention. He expressed hope that Diocesan Council would take it under advisement to look at the asking and our response to it, to think about methods of going in this direction over a period of years, so as not to have a tremendous impact in one year on our giving to the budget of the Episcopal Church. He thinks an amendment of the budget is the wrong way to address a policy issue. He suggested the best way to further this kind of reflection would be to introduce a resolution calling for an investigation, reflection, and decision. He suggested Convention vote against this amendment and approach the question another way.

Mr. Rusty Whitley, Church of the St. Hilary's, Fort Myers, spoke in opposition to the amendment, pointing out to Convention that the new Chief Operating Officer of ECUSA, Bishop Stacy Sauls, has proposed what Father Rowe just mentioned, a study to be voted on at the next General Convention, to revise the method of managing the national church and, as a result from that, looking forward to a 1% asking of the parish budgets, as Father Hiers would like to see happen.

The Rev. Randall Hehr, St. John's, Tampa, rose to speak against the motion. He mentioned how easy it could be to give less to the parish, how easy for the parish to say the same about apportionment; let's keep some of this for ourselves. We heard this amendment say it again, let's keep some for ourselves. We don't do this because we are the parish, we are the diocese, and we are the Episcopal Church.

The Rev. John Adler, Iona-Hope, stated that he supports everything that has been said in opposition to this motion.

The Rev. Douglas Remer, St. John's, Tampa, spoke in opposition to the theology behind the amendment saying that in the past the theology behind this amendment has been articulated, and that he wanted to debunk that theology entirely. "There is no such thing as one tithe in Old Testament." Also, the various tithes in the Old Testament relate only to the individual, not to institutions. To try to standardize something which does not exist in the Old Testament into some kind of standard for our responsibility in the church today is ludicrous. "If you want to give 10% that's fine, just don't pretend that it's Biblical theology."

The question was called. Bishop Smith clarified, "The motion to amend the budget is before you. If you vote "yes", you are voting to amend the budget - in support of the amendment. If you vote "no", you are voting to defeat the amendment. Following the voice vote a count was requested. The vote in favor of the amendment was 49; the vote against was 244.

20. Report of the Resolutions Committee .....
Gregory Hearing: Greg Hearing reported there were no resolutions from this committee.

Resolutions through Constitutions and Canons The Rev. Becky Robbins-Penniman

Pastor Becky spoke about two resolutions submitted by the Committee on Constitutions and Canons.
First, Resolution 2011-#1, involves a change in terminology from "supervised congregation" to "assisted congregation". She explained this as an indication of a change of attitude. It is not a substantive change.

The emphasis of Resolution 2011-#2 is on the word voluntarily.

Resolution 2011-#1 Resolution Changing Canonical Term from "Supervised Congregation" to "Assisted Congregation."

Offered by the Committee on Constitutions and Canons, meeting on August 9, 2011:

RESOLVED, by the 43rd Annual Convention of the Diocese of Southwest Florida meeting at Punta Gorda on the 22nd day of October, 2011:

That the Canons of the Diocese of Southwest Florida be amended as follows:

If the recommendation of the Congregational Development Committee is that a referred Congregation receive financial ~~assistance~~ SUPPORT or extraordinary ~~supervision~~ ASSISTANCE from the Diocese in order to continue operating in accordance with the Constitution and Canons of the Episcopal Church or of this Diocese, and the Bishop and Diocesan Council both approve the recommendation, the Congregation, whether a parish or a mission, shall be considered a ~~Supervised~~ AN ASSISTED Congregation until Diocesan Council removes the designation.
Second, that conforming amendments be made throughout the Canons of the Diocese of Southwest Florida wherever the term "Supervised Congregation" occurs.

Explanation:

The language to be removed is struck out: ~~example~~. The language to be added is in upper case letters: EXAMPLE. Underlined letters indicate that the letter will be in upper case when printed in normal text: EXAMPLE will be printed as Example in the normal format.

The reason for the proposed change is to clarify the relationship of congregations referred to the Committee on Congregational Development to address extraordinary challenges. The role of the Diocese and the CDC is not to assume control, but to assist the congregation in working through issues in a way that keeps it accountable toward its responsibilities as a worshipping community and Member of Convention.

Resolution 2011-#2 Resolution Permitting a Congregation to Voluntarily Change from a Parish to a Mission

Offered by the Committee on Constitutions and Canons, meeting on August 22, 2011:

RESOLVED, by the 43rd Annual Convention of the Diocese of Southwest Florida meeting at Punta Gorda on the 22nd day of October, 2011:

That the Canons of the Diocese of Southwest Florida be amended as follows:

Canon IX. Section 6, paragraph f., be amended as follows:
f. Upon approval of Diocesan Council and the Bishop, the status of a parish may be changed to that of a mission ~~if~~ IN EITHER OF THE FOLLOWING CASES:

1. PURSUANT TO THEIR DUTIES UNDER CANONS VI AND VII OF THE CANONS OF THIS DIOCESE, AND IN COMPLIANCE WITH THE BYLAWS OF THE CONGREGATION, THE CONGREGATIONAL COUNCIL AND THE MEMBER OF THE CLERGY IN CHARGE OF THE PARISH VOLUNTARILY CONSENT TO THE CHANGE IN STATUS.

2. The parish has been ~~a Supervised~~ AN ASSISTED Congregation for at least three (3) prior consecutive years and the Congregational Development Committee reports that it is not likely that within the next six (6) months the Congregation will become financially stable, self-supporting, and able to operate in accordance with the Constitution and Canons of the Episcopal Church and of this Diocese. IN ACTIONS UNDER SECTION 6.F.2. ~~An~~ THE affirmative vote of two-thirds (2/3) of the Members of Convention voting at a meeting of the Convention shall be necessary to change the status of the parish to a mission.

Explanation:

The reason for the proposed change is to permit parishes that do not need the extraordinary assistance of Section 6 of, Canon IX, but that no longer meet the criteria required to become a Parish under Section 2 of the Canon, to ~~voluntarily~~ change to "mission" status. The change in status would give the congregation the advantages of the heightened involvement the Bishop has with regard to the governance and clergy leadership of missions, but not demand the level of support Assisted Congregations receive. Nothing in this revision would, however, prevent a mission congregation from also becoming an Assisted Congregation under the terms of Canon IX.

Pursuant to Canon II.3.b., the new provision will be effective immediately upon passage of the resolution by the Convention.

The language to be removed is struck out: ~~example~~. The language to be added is in upper case letters: EXAMPLE. Underlined letters indicate that the letter will be in upper case when printed in normal text: EXAMPLE will be printed as Example in the normal format.

There being no conversation, Bishop Smith called for a vote on Resolution 2011-#1, regarding the proposed change in canonical terminology from "supervised" congregation to "assisted" congregation. All voting in favor, the resolution carried.

Likewise, on Resolution 2011-#2, permitting a congregation to voluntarily change from a parish to a mission, there was no discussion; all voted in favor, the resolution carried.

Reports to Convention

Bishop Gray Retirement Foundation, Inc.

The Bishop Gray Retirement Foundation's financial assistance program continues to provide financial aid to low- income elderly Episcopalians from the Southwest, Southeast, and Central Dioceses of Florida seeking help with the high costs of retirement community living and medical expenses. We do still gratefully receive donations from individuals and parishes from the three dioceses. The board of trustees would like to preserve the endowment fund as much as possible, using only the income from investments for distributions. During 2011, we have helped 29 Episcopalians, living in retirement communities, assisted living and senior facilities in the three dioceses. Approximately $350,000 will be distributed for financial assistance this year mostly in the form of monthly housing grants.

—Ginger Van Valkenburgh, Exec. Director

Christian Formation

The Christian Formation office in the Diocese of Southwest Florida includes a number of different ministries—the Youth and Summer Camp Programs, the College Chaplaincies and Young Adult Ministries, Family Ministries, and the School for Ministry Development. Many wonderful activities have taken place in each of these areas during the past year.

This year, there were two "Happening" and two "New Beginnings" events, all of which were held at DaySpring Conference Center with a "filled to capacity" attendance. Summer Camp was also a brilliant success. Two camps, elementary and middle school, were sponsored by the diocese with the theme of "Get it, Got it, Give it" which centered-around the Great Commission in the Gospel of Matthew. Camp Able, another camp that takes place every summer at DaySpring, is directed and funded through the work of Fr. Kyle Bennett and his incredible staff of volunteers. There were more than 35 special-needs campers for the week, with more than 70 volunteers to ensure that the campers had memorable and enjoyable experience. Plans are underway to add an additional camp week.

There are active college chaplaincies at the State College of Florida (SCF) in Manatee County and at the University of South Florida (USF) in Tampa. The ministry at USF operates out of "Chapel Center@USF", a property owned by our diocese. This year the center has three senior/graduate student residents. In addition, the Chi Alpha student club utilizes the premises for its meetings, as do a number of other student-sponsored activities.

The School for Ministry Development (SMD) made a major change in its program. The courses are now semester-long courses of 10 hours, each over four months rather than a one-day seminar, so that the students are able to get a much deeper exposure to the material. There were 10 students in various phases of their program enrolled last year, and we expect about that same number this year.

This year also saw the introduction of a special and new presentation in Christian Formation: a Family Ministry Conference. The conference was developed and led by Fr. Edward Gleason of Trinity-by-the-Cove in Naples. The event was well attended by many interested people from all over the diocese. The focus was the inclusion of all family members in worship, education, and fellowship. Plans are being made for another family ministry conference next year.

—Fr. Jim Williamson, Canon for Christian Formation

Clergy Spouse Association

For more than 30 years, the Clergy Spouse Association of the Episcopal Diocese of Southwest Florida has been a vibrant, active group of women and men serving God in their home communities and beyond, and gathering every few months as a fellowship, to learn and refresh. The most remarkable aspect of CSA members is the variety, depth, and intensity of our own ministries. Many members serve in myriad ways for the parish that employs their spouse, and also the wider community in which they live, in both Episcopal and inter-denominational ministries.

One ongoing ministry we have as a group is creating and selling jewelry to benefit clergy spouses in dire need around the globe. We select two or three spouses per year— past recipients have included clergy spouses in Tanzania, Haiti, and one from Rwanda. We were able to significantly help those families. If you know of a clergy family around the globe (money goes much further outside the U.S.) whom we could assist, please contact the Clergy Spouse Association through our page on the diocesan website.

The two main, recurring events that the CSA sponsors are a Diocesan Convention Luncheon and a Spring Retreat. The 2010 Convention Luncheon featured Debra M. Smith as our keynote speaker. The wife of Bishop George Wayne Smith of the Diocese of Missouri enlightened us on the political strife between North and South Sudan, and the Episcopal Church's aid to the beleaguered South. It was a moving and educational speech. About 47 spouses attended the luncheon.

The 2010 CSA Retreat was titled "Our Body, God'sTemple" and was led by Quincey Thoeni, a professional health educator specializing in nutrition, chronic pain, and lifestyle change. Her workshops were interspersed with workshops led by distinguished guests, including Tai Chi and Acupuncture.by Fr. Don Nicholson (Board Certified in TCM), and Art Therapy by Susan Joy Smellie, ATR.

Commission on Liturgy and Music

The Commission on Liturgy and Music for the Diocese of Southwest Florida is appointed by the Bishop and serves under his guidance and direction. The Commission is responsible for the planning and execution of the liturgies for Diocesan Convention, as well as other diocesan events as needed. We also are responsible for providing and keeping current the customaries for confirmation and ordination.

In addition to the liturgies for Convention last year, in February, at the Cathedral Church of St. Peter, the Commission was involved in preparing the liturgy for the ordination of three deacons, The Rev. Mario Castro-Wessin, The Rev. Wayne F. Farrell, and The Rev. Bryan D. Carroll.

Our goal is to serve the Bishop and diocese by providing well-planned, beautiful liturgies expressive of the faith of the People of God and of the very best in Anglican worship, and our intention is to involve many persons from throughout the diocese and indicative of our great and growing diversity.

—The Rev. Fredrick A. Robinson, Chair, Commission on Liturgy and Music

Committee on Constitution and Canons

The work of the Committee on Constitution and Canons was wonderfully simple this year, consisting of a simple change in nomenclature regarding congregations receiving support and assistance from the Diocese. Please let us know if you have any exciting issues for us to tackle this year.

—Becky Robbins-Penniman, Chair, Committee on Constitutions and Canons

DaySpring Development Steering Committee

Dayspring, a sacred place at the heart of our diocese, exists to enrich and empower all people in Christ. The work of the DaySpring Development Steering Committee is to identify with the mission statement above and implement the following:

Return of the major operational aspects of the Diocesan Office to Dayspring.

Building of worship space at Dayspring

Intentional program development at Dayspring.

This year the committee focused its efforts in the construction of the new Diocesan House ways to ascertain what the diocesan needs and desires are in the program development of DaySpring. With regard to the Diocesan House, once we found our architect, Apex-Studio Suarez (whose rendering was presented at last year's convention), we appointed Archdeacon Dennis McManis to be our owner's representative in all construction matters. Archdeacon McManis has an extensive history of knowledge and experience in this field of construction.

With the assistance of Archdeacon McManis and the committee we then proceeded in the discerning process of hiring a general contractor. After several interviews we came to an agreement with Peter R Brown Construction, Inc. of Clearwater.

Our progress has been slowed by the extensive and exhausting process of permitting; however, we now have our permits and expect to break ground in early September. More information on the construction will be announced at the October convention.

Diocesan Altar Guild Report

This group supports the Bishop in matters related to liturgy and any services that he provides needing Eucharistic vessels and linens, vestments and any other furnishings of a sanctuary. The diocese owns all these supplies. We also provide for and set up the entire Convention Eucharist. Larger services held at DaySpring are also part of our support, and we maintain the St. Thomas' Chapel at DaySpring.

For the third time this year, we will provide an exchange table at the Ministry Fair during Convention. No money changes hands but many people benefit from bringing or taking unused liturgical items. Items have also gone to the Dominican Republic, Haiti, Africa and the Philippines. We also facilitate exchanges via the Internet.

There is a newsletter called The Altargram, which is published by us four times a year. This is sent electronically to every church. We are available to every church in the diocese for support and training and provide an annual meeting each spring with an interesting program for every altar guild to attend. The Bishop presides at this. There are also Deanery meetings with speakers and fellowship. The board meets four times a year at DaySpring. Our budget includes scholarships for annual meetings at Kanuga or the National Altar Guild meeting every three years. Every church pays dues to support our work.

Diocesan Endowment Fund Board

About a year and half ago, the Diocesan Finance Committee established a subcommittee to review all of the original documents for the various restricted and designated funds held by the Diocese. This review resulted in a re-classification of substantial amounts of money on the balance sheet of the Diocese and the need for some new procedures. Last fall another sub-committee was formed to review the endowment management procedures of the diocese and make recommendations for improvement. The result of that sub-committee's work was the adoption of several or revised policies by the Diocesan Council.

The Diocesan Council by resolution created The Endowment Board to administer and manage all restricted funds and to receive all future gifts and bequests not designated for operating purposes. Distributions from the fund are limited to:

- Maintenance and support of the physical assets of the diocese
- Outreach ministries and grants
- Seed money for new ministries and special one-time projects
- Such other purposes as specifically designated by donors whose gifts are included in the funds

The Endowment Board consists of the Bishop, the CFO, three members of the Finance Committee and two at large members. The final Board make-up consists of two Chartered Financial Analysts, one Actuary, one Estate Planning Attorney, one Certified Public Accountant, one priest and one Bishop. In other words a very well qualified Board.

The Board operates under the resolution and the following policies adopted by Council:

a) Investment Policy Statement
This statement contains the operating rules which must be followed by the investment professionals engaged by the Board and Council for management of the Fund

b) Spending Rule Policy
This policy provides an annually determined amount which will be distributed from the Fund which the CFO and the Finance Committee can use in preparing the budget for the Diocese.

c) Disposition of Bequests Policy
This policy states the rules for dealing with restricted and unrestricted bequests received by the Diocese

d) Donor-Designated Funds Policy
This policy provides a minimum amount of $50,000 for the establishment of a separate fund to be administered by the Board

e) Gift Acceptance Policy
This rule sets forth the type of gifts that can be accepted when dealing with non-cash gifts and also restricted gifts whose restrictions are in conflict with the mission, purposes, canons or policies of the Diocese.

At June 30, 2011 the Endowment Board had $6,890,000 under management with the Episcopal Church Foundation using State Street Global Advisors.

The Board supports the Canon for Development, Canon Chris Gray, on the annual Bishop's Appeal. This year the 1st annual appeal resulted in $34,000 for the Episcopal Charities and DaySpring Endowments. Future appeal efforts of various types will work to grow the diocesan endowments and support the congregations in doing the same.

It is hoped that the Endowment Fund model created by the Diocese can be used by individual parishes to protect and manage their restricted funds and endowments. In recent years far too many parishes have dipped into their restricted funds and endowments because they were an easy source of funding operations during a time of economic hardship. We probably all know at least one parish that has used up all of their reserves and now have nothing to build on for the future. The idea of a semi-independent board and a spending rule can protect what we have left and provide a sense of security for future donors.

—Stephen "Rusty" Whitley, CPA, Chairman, Endowment Fund Board

Diocesan Schools

Episcopal schools in our diocese serve more than 5,000 students. Nationally, there are more than 1,200 Episcopal schools, with seven large ones in southwest Florida: St. John's and St. Mary's and Berkeley in Tampa; St. Paul's in Clearwater; Canterbury in St. Pete; St. Stephen's in Bradenton; and Good Shepherd in Punta Gorda. Additionally, there are a large number of parish- based preschools, such as St. David's in Englewood and St. Mark's in Venice.

The Diocesan Schools Committee meets during the year to share ideas and to discuss the challenges our schools face. All members most look forward to the yearly meeting with our Bishop, for he is one of our strongest supporters. Additionally, he makes a point of visiting each of our schools every year, and for this we are all appreciative. This year we welcome new members to the committee: The Rev. Stefanie Taylor, assisting chaplain, St. John's, Tampa; The Rev. Andrea Taylor, St. Boniface; The Rev. Eric Kahl, chaplain and rector, St. Mary's, Tampa; The Rev. Nathan Speck-Ewer, chaplain, St. Stephen's, Bradenton.

—The Rev. Douglas Carter, Chairman, Diocesan Schools Committee

Diocesan Stewardship Committee

The Diocesan Stewardship Committee offered two Diocesan Stewardship Workshops during the summer of 2011. The two workshops were well attended from 43 congregations, with registrations of 118 laity and clergy. The material covered included a review of fall stewardship programs, exploration of theological and biblical understanding of stewardship, an overview of planned giving, handouts for Vestry Stewardship Statements, stewardship Bible study materials, and lay stewardship witness outlines.

The Rev. Chris Gray, Canon for Development, was appointed by Bishop Dabney T. Smith this past year to work with congregations in the diocese in all areas of stewardship education and development. He visited 21 congregations during the year, with some receiving multiple visits, which included preaching and teaching on stewardship. He also attended Deanery Clericus Meetings and represented the diocese at the annual Episcopal Network for Stewardship (TENS) Conference in June. The Episcopal Network for Stewardship (TENS) is making a major change in the coming year and will no longer send the bi-monthly publication by mail to every congregation in the diocese. This publication will be sent electronically to the diocesan office where it will be forwarded electronically to each congregation.

This past spring the Committee worked very closely with the diocesan staff to create and produce the first Annual Bishop's Appeal which was mailed to parishioners in the diocese. A special thank you is extended to our congregations for sharing their mailing lists which made this mail appeal possible. We are also grateful to the diocesan staff for their labor of love in processing this massive mailing. The proceeds from the Bishop's Annual Appeal benefit the Episcopal Charities Endowment Fund and the DaySpring Endowment Fund.

The Committee also worked closely with the Episcopal Church Foundation to assist congregations with their Planned Giving needs. Ken Quigley from the Episcopal Church Foundation will present a Planned Giving Workshop at the 2011 Convention. Terry Parsons, the former Program Officer for Stewardship at the Episcopal Church Center, presented a Stewardship Workshop at the 2010 Convention. Additional stewardship workshops on various aspects of stewardship and planned giving are projected for 2012.

—The Rev. Chris Gray, Canon for Development

Dominican Development Group, Companion Diocese Relationship: 2011

The outstanding feature between October 2010 and October 2011 for the Dominican Development Group and the Companion Diocese relationship is the continued missional commitment by a goodly number of individuals and parishes of Southwest Florida to the Dominican Episcopal Church. Over 120 persons in 10 teams participated in parish and deanery teams in mission work with the DR this past year.

Deanery Teams

The Tampa Deanery raised over $60,000 and sent 5 teams to help build the San Pedro & San Pablo Church & School; the Naples Deanery sent some $45,000 in program support El Buen Samaritano Shelter/School as well as sent their annual New Year's team to the DR; the Venice Deanery raised some $19,000 to help build Santo Tomás Child Nutrition Center plus sent a combined construction and VBS team; and the Clearwater Deanery sent some $18,000 and a combined construction and VBS team to work at La Redención Church/School & Jesús Peregrino Church. Airline tickets, lodging, and other support costs in the DR are above and beyond these figures.

Individual Parish Efforts

The Church of the Ascension spearheaded the collection of 61 scholarships for children in San Matías School and sent its combined construction/VBS team to work at San Matías during the summer. The Venice and Clearwater Deaneries also raised scholarships for their respective schools. The Cathedral sent its annual VBS team to San Lucas and La Anunciación. The Church of the Redeemer sent an adult construction team to El Niño Jesús School, a youth team to Cristo Rey, and Fr. Fred Robinson led the devotional/reflection sessions at a DR clergy retreat. Through its challenge matching grant St. John's, Naples sent $15,000 towards the construction of the new Espíritu Consolador church in Dajabón on the Haitian border.

ECW: The ECW remained active, concluding its support for Sami, the child born with AIDS – for she "graduated" from the home for children with AIDS that she had been living for years, and was married. The ECW then took on the provision of food for the Saturday morning children's Bible study and hot lunch program started by the women of Santo Tomás, Gautier, a very poor settlement on the edge of Santo Domingo.

Missionaries: Karen Carroll, long-term missionary from the Cathedral, has made her transition from serving as the first director of the Bishop Isaac Home for the Elderly, and now works with mission Ellen Snow coordinating the myriad of logistics associated with the over 50 mission teams that served in the DR this past year. Karen will be the guest speaker at the Clergy Spouse luncheon at the convention this year. Bob Stevens continues under special appointment with the Episcopal Church, heading up the Dominican Development Group headquartered at DaySpring.

Overall, the Dominican Development Group continues to mature as an organization, as it touches so many people for mission around the diocese. In Southwest Florida the above is a litany of mission coming from Southwest Florida. The Companion Diocese Committee, the DDG's local arm, continues strong, and a variety of SWFL leaders have emerged to help give direction to our companion relationship. Notably, Bill Kunkle (Tampa Deanery, St. Mark's) traveled to Michigan to hold a workshop and meet with leaders from three of the Michigan Dioceses to help launch their joint DR mission project based on the very successful Tampa Deanery model.

—Dr. Robert Stevens, Director, Dominican Development Group

Education for Ministry (EfM)

The Education for Ministry program of theological education for lay people (learning at a distance) was created at the School of Theology, the University of the South, Sewanee, Tenn., and is administered from there. EfM came into being after World War II, arising out of a documented need for better-educated laity in terms of the context in which the various parts of the Bible were formed and how scripture relates to the culture in which we live. EfM is NOT BIBLE STUDY, although there are Bible study techniques inherent in the exercise of theological reflection which is at the heart of each EfM group's work.

The objective of EfM is to graduate people who, during their course of study, have identified their gifts for ministry and are able to offer these to the parish/community in which they live. The material is written and updated periodically by a team of biblical scholars who have connected scripture, the ancient writings of the church fathers, church history and tradition with the enormous amount of biblical scholarly research done in the last 150 years.

There are seminar groups all over the world. Several dioceses sponsor groups within their jurisdictions; Southwest Florida is one of them, allowing students to pay a lower admission rate. A four-year program, the curriculum is divided into segments, committed to a year at a time. Year One covers the Hebrew Bible, our Old Testament; Year Two, the New Testament; Year Three, Church History; Year Four, Theological Choices.

Typically, a seminar group, led by a trained mentor, meets weekly in a parish for nine months, discussing the material and doing theological reflection. Group sizes differ, but cannot be larger than 12 students, or smaller than six.

As of July 2011, there are nine active EfM groups in the diocese, including Naples, Punta Gorda/Port Charlotte/ Englewood, Venice, Sarasota, Tampa, St. Petersburg, Clearwater, Temple Terrace. There are two new groups being formed. The diocese provides mentor training once a year; the last session was held in May, 2011, and another is planned for May, 2012. For more information, please note the EfM display table at Convention.

—The Rev. Judith S. Roberts, Acting Diocesan Coordinator, EfM

Episcopal Church Women

The Episcopal Church Women of the diocese of SWFL (ECW) is alive and well. The women of our diocese (and every woman IS an Episcopal Church Woman) continue to give to others, not only their time and talent, but monetarily as well. The women of this Diocese in 2010 gifted, so very generously, to their Parishes, to the Communities, the Deaneries, the Diocese of SWFL, and to the World, a total of $542,954.81.

As ECW's, we do not forget our purpose to each woman in the diocese. Our mission statement of Women Reaching women, for Christ, with Christ, continues throughout our daily lives. This year 2011, we have begun a new outreach. We now are helping the women of Santa Tomas in Gautier in The Dominican Republic, by furnishing the kitchen of the Educational and Nutritional Center. The children of Santa Tomas have a daily Bible study and this is followed by a hot nutritional meal cooked and served by the women of Santa Tomas. This is the only hot meal the children have daily.

This will be my last report as your ECW Diocesan President, and I want to send my heartfelt thanks to each of the Branch presidents, Deanery Representatives, the Deanery Directors and to the best ECW Executive Board I had the privilege to serve with these last three years.

—Carol Eisenbaugh, ECW Diocesan President

Episcopal Relief & Development

Episcopal Relief & Development has continued the ministry of "HEALING A HURTING WORLD," since the fund's inception in 1940 as the Presiding Bishop's Fund for World Relief. Approximately 92 percent of every donated dollar goes to programs.

Currently work is carried out in 42 countries. Notably this year, in addition to ongoing and new development work throughout the world, there has been response to the relief needed in Japan, E. Africa, S. India and Haiti, as well as areas devastated in the United States.

Three new curricula have been developed to engage youth and adults in a caring ministry. (see http://www.er-d.org/Formation/)

ABUNDANT LIFE engages young children in a garden project that helps them understand how difficult it can be to raise crops in an underdeveloped country.

ACT OUT is a program geared to middle and high school students.

REAL HEROES VERSUS RITA MOSQUITO is designed for children ages 4 and up or for intergenerational groups. Options are provided for varying ages of children.

At the 2010 Convention of the Diocese of Southwest FL, a challenge was set to have every parish participate in designated "nets" have been coming into the diocese. As of the end of July, $36,714 (3,060 nets @ $12 ea.) had been collected by Episcopal Charities.

Bishop Smith wishes to continue this appeal, striving to reach the 10,000 nets goal. As one net potentially saves three lives, we will be representing the approximately 30,000 Episcopalians in the diocese. (Twenty-five of the 76 parishes in the diocese have responded to the Nets Inspiration Fund appeal as of Aug. 1.)

Maureen Belote and Jody Tiffany, Diocesan Coordinators for Episcopal Relief & Development have been visiting parishes at the request of the rector/vicar. People in these churches have had the highest response. The need for nets will continue, as nets only last three to four years.

—Maureen Belote & Jody Tiffany, Diocesan Coordinators, Episcopal Relief & Development

Evangelism Committee

The Evangelism Committee has one mandate that is at the heart and soul of this ministry—to share Jesus with others. There are certainly many ways to do this and we on the evangelism committee are looking for ways to more effectively bring some new and fresh ideas to you, and to also support our ongoing ministries that have been fruitful.

One such ministry has been Youthquake held each year in Ridgecrest, NC. This annual youth event has seen an incredible impact on the youth who have attended this high energy, nonstop weekend of powerful teaching, worship, breakout groups, and fun. This past year, our committee sponsored a bus that picked up youth and chaperones in our diocese and took them to NC. We are in the planning stages to do this again in January. In 2010, we also were pleased to bring to our diocese Very Rev. Kevin Martin, Dean of the Cathedral in Diocese of Texas, who brought us a program on evangelism centered in part on his book, The Myth of the 200 Barrier. In the coming year we hope to be in better contact with you through some innovative ways to keep you more informed and provide more opportunities for evangelism conferences and special events.

—The Rev. Charles Mann, Chairman,Evangelism Committee

Finance Committee

The Diocesan Finance Committee is the initial contact group for all congregations requesting support related to financial issues. The Committee carefully analyzes the information received and/or presented, and then recommends appropriate action to the Diocesan Council who is the business decision-making body for the Diocese.

Not only does the Finance Committee analyze and recommend, but it also suggests alternative solutions or courses of action that would benefit the congregation. In coordination with Diocesan Chief Financial Officer, the committee is the watch-dog of the Diocese in financial matters and makes sure that the funds of the Diocese are handled carefully and wisely.

This past year our various subcommittees have focused on the following key areas:

Parish Audit Subcommittee, which follows and assists parishes with their audits and reports, which result in accurate reporting and also ensures that parishes have a clear understanding of their financial well-being. We currently are more current in the reports and audits than we have been in the past. The education and guiding of the parish treasurers and bookkeepers has been very well received.

Revolving Loan Fund Policy and General Debt Guidelines was established to set standards and policies for congregations which could benefit from loans, either from the diocese or other lending institutions. The $4 million diocesan loan fund is currently in the position to lend $750,000 for new loan proposals.

—Allen O. Getz, Chairman, Diocesan Finance Committee

The Order of the Daughters of the King

The Order of the Daughters of the King in the Diocese of Southwest Florida is composed of 35 active senior chapters with 644 members and two junior chapters. By reaffirmation of the promises made at Baptism and Confirmation, a Daughter pledges herself to a life-long program of prayer, service and evangelism, dedicated to the spread of Christ's Kingdom and the strengthening of the spiritual life of her parish.

Our chapters regularly visit and offer prayers for the sick and shut-ins, participate in quiet days, healing services, as well as book and Bible studies. We support "Safe Passage," a non-profit organization working in Guatemala City to bring hope, education, and opportunity to the children and families living in extreme poverty around the City's garbage dump. We have pledged to continue financial support to Heidi, the student we sponsor, until she graduates.

We publish quarterly newsletters, "The Silver Cross," in which we highlight local chapter activities, provide guidance and support from our chaplain, the Reverend Patricia Powers, and other relevant timely information for our members. The Silver Cross is an especially important communication device for our members-at-large. Marilyn Radosovich, the members-at-large chairperson, does and outstanding job of making sure that the 67 at-large members in our diocese are provided opportunities to participate in activities sponsored by chapters in their area as well as diocesan activities.

We participated in the Province IV Assembly Committee Meeting in January as well as the Summer Retreat at Kanuga. We hosted a Spring Retreat and a Fall Assembly at Day Spring to provide members an opportunity to get to know each other and to gain additional ideas and support in living our commitment to prayer, service and evangelism.

The Daughters of the King Chapters in the Diocese of Southwest Florida are committed to the Lord, our parishes, the diocese and each other.

—Leila Mizer, President, The Order of the Daughters of the King

Recovery Ministries

We witness to Christ's unfailing mercy by offering four annual retreats—with each retreat focusing on three of the 12 Steps of Alcoholics Anonymous. Many of these retreaters are new to recovery (primarily from: St. Mathew's House, Naples; SWAFAS, Fort Myers; and the AA clubs in Clearwater) and would not be able to attend without scholarship assistance from our Diocesan allowance and generous donations from our members, who have enjoyed many years of sobriety.

We also send a team of two persons to the Annual Gathering of Episcopal Recovery Ministries, a national organization created by action of the 1979 Convention of The Episcopal Church. The Diocese of Southwest Florida has hosted several of these Gatherings and often has one or more persons serving on the national Board of Directors.

Each Parish/Mission has been encouraged to promote one Alcohol/Drug Awareness Sunday per year. Unfortunately, these programs are rarely scheduled and when scheduled are often ineffective. Please remember that 10 percent of your congregants are persons who are either addicted or are experiencing a problem with substance abuse. If you would like to schedule an Alcohol/Drug Awareness Sunday by using the 12-Step Eucharist, please feel free to contact me. I am available from mid-November through the end of April and I would love to "share my experience, strength and hope" with you and your parishioners.

—The Rev. Dr. John A. Lindell, Chairman, Recovery Ministries

Safe Church Committee

The Safe Church Committee completed the Council's assignments of establishing the new abuse prevention by 2010. We compiled and sent the report to the House of Bishops in January, 2009. We adapted the Model Policies for Prevention of Sexual Harassment and Sexual Exploitation complete with the correct Florida statutes. We presented these to Council in March, 2009 and shared them with the other four Florida Dioceses. We rolled out the Safeguarding Online Program by September 2009.

Safeguarding Online hosted a table at the Ministry Fair in October 2010. We had four laptop computers, borrowed from BEACON Ministries in Pine Island, with the help of Birg Anderson, set up for people to be able to at least begin their recertification in the Safeguarding Online program. If possible we plan to do this again this year.

In April, 2011, The Rev. Canon Michael Durning called for a meeting of the Faculty members of the Safeguarding All God's Children Program. There will be another such meeting scheduled for September 17.

—Bonnie Jean M. Durning & The Rev. Doug L. Zimmerman

Standing Committee

At the 2010 Annual Convention of the Diocese of Southwest Florida, the following persons were elected to the Standing Committee; The Very Rev. Kathryn M. Schillreff, The Rev. Bob Hennagin and Wayne Ford. The members listed below submit this report of their canonically required work since the 2010 convention. Pursuant to canon, the vast majority of the work of the Standing Committee is required to be confidential and is therefore not reported.

The newly constituted Standing Committee elected The Very Rev. Cesar Olivero as president, Sheree Graves as vice president and Ms. Maisie Reddy as secretary.

Many of the actions taken throughout the course of the year were taken pursuant to canon.

The University of The South – Sewanee

Sewanee's Relationship to the Episcopal Church. The University of the South, an institution of the Episcopal Church, was founded by church leaders from the southeastern United States in 1857. Sewanee is the only university in the nation that is owned and governed by dioceses of the Episcopal Church, specifically the 28 dioceses that are successors to the original founding dioceses. The university's Board of Trustees is composed of the bishops of the 28 owning dioceses, together with clerical and lay representatives elected by each diocese and representatives of other University constituencies.

Women's Ministry

After eight years of being together as a planning group, the team decided to make a change. The 15 women who had served faithfully made plans for their last Believe in A Miracle event in Punta Gorda in February. Over the eight years of programs, BIAM has had more than 2,200 women who have attended one or more of the events. The focus has always been on a time of coming together for Prayer, Praise, Music, Inspiration, and Motivation; the purpose has been to inspire women to go out into the world to spread the Word, to be comfortable in evangelism. "How To" workshops have been presented in the Diocese of Alabama, Diocese of Central Florida, and the Diocese of Western North Carolina. In June 2010 and 2011, Believe In A Miracle has held an event at the Annual Women's Conference in Kanuga, N.C. for the leaders of 20 dioceses of Province IV.

On Feb. 25, 2012, a new BIAM concept will begin. It will continue to be led by a team of dedicated women with Lana Fitzgerald of Naples as the director. We continue to thank the Diocese of Southwest Florida for our financial support. This year's program will feature as keynoter, Katerina Whitley, renowned author and enactor of women of the Bible. Featured musician will be Fran McKendree, noted musician and much loved leader of music for conferences. This event will be held at Dayspring, accommodating only 300 women. Our newest focus will be to have all women's ministries host these events. This year's day will be planned by the BIAM team, sponsored by Women's Ministry, Diocese of Southwest Florida, and hosted by Episcopal Church Women. Each year, a different ministry will host the program.

Also in the plans for 2011-12 will be smaller gatherings called Mini Miracle Days. These events are held at individual churches, opened to all women. The first will be at St. Andrews Episcopal Church in Springhill on Nov. 5. This will be a half-day program and will follow the format of BIAM. Once again, BIAM will also be held on the first Tuesday in June, 2012, at Kanuga at the Women's Conference.

2012 Diocesan Budget

Highlights of the 2012 Diocesan Budget Presented to Convention

1. Full Diocesan Participation

The year 2010 marked the "turn of a page" in diocesan life - full participation. 97% of the scheduled apportionments were paid by congregations, with no arrearages remaining as of June 2011. In fact, for the year to date through June 2011, only 4% remained unpaid, representing current monthly participation in the apportionment function. This positive change in participation contributes to the synergy of our diocesan life and mission, and justifies a reduction in the assumption for uncollectible apportionment expense in 2012, contributing $61,000 towards other aspects of the diocesan budget.

2. Focusing Resources on Positive Plans with Measurable Results

After restructuring the budget in 2009 and a financial management overhaul in 2010, we now celebrate the ability to focus resources towards innovative and proactive plans in order to meet the challenges of our current environment. Each area of the budget involves a detailed articulation of the plans, measurable results and clear accountability. Therefore, without creating more resources to start with (i.e. no change in income), we are more able to utilize what we have and share in the results with more energy and purpose.

3. New Adaptive Models for Congregational Development

Budgets were plans that sparked conversation around the diocese through the year, more clearly defining concepts that are becoming closer to real options. As one rector explained his challenge: "Rectors get bogged down in administration and expense management and there is no time/energy to do what we should be doing: ministry, programming and growing the Church". The 2012 diocesan budget includes $150,000 to invest in new solutions for these challenges, such as shared administrative centers for nearby churches. In addition, $1.2 million is available through the Diocesan Revolving Loan Fund to support capital projects with thoughtful financial planning. New models for congregational development will allow us to Honor our Tradition in innovative ways.

4. Growing Endowments

The various aspects of our Diocesan Endowment are fully integrated with the annual life of the diocese. The new DaySpring Endowment, existing Mission/2020 Fund and Revolving Loan Funds are flowing as we Build for the Future. The Episcopal Charities Endowment has established an annual income stream to fund grants for Mercy in Mission. The collective restricted bequests of donors through the history of our diocese are directly tied to the budget, ensuring that donors understand their impact on the life and work of our diocese. This year, the first Bishop's Appeal communicated these goals to 25,000 Episcopalians. With $450,000 in Episcopal Charities and $350,000 in DaySpring permanent endowments, we are well on our way towards making a lasting impact.

5. Real Progress in Shared Diocesan Life and Mission Clarity

Through the work of our committees and congregation leaders, both the diocese and individual churches are making great strides in understanding the question: Who are we? And what are we called to do? Incorporating both the business of running a church and the discernment of our mission and purpose, the thoughtful work of our leaders this year enhanced the health and vitality of our organizations. Supporting leadership development at all levels is a continued priority. Through the diocesan budget and the many conversations throughout the diocese, we are excited to continue this momentum. with the Office of the Bishop regularly to discuss quantifiable goals and benchmarks.

Episcopal Diocese of Southwest Florida
Exhibit A - Apportionment Calculation Clarification

The apportionment of support that each congregation pays to the Diocese of Southwest Florida for the support of the diocese and related activities of the diocese shall be calculated as a sum of two parts: 1) operating apportionment and 2) capital apportionment. The Parochial Report figures used as the basis for these calculations shall be the report filed two years preceding the year in which the apportionment is due. For example: the 2010 apportionment is calculated using the data filed in the 2008 Parochial Report.

1) Operating Apportionment is calculated as 10% of the congregation's "Normal Operating Income", reported on SubTotal A of the Parochial Report. The 10% is based on the biblical tithe and is the default rate for every year, however the percentage amount may be adjusted as a part of the annual budgeting process. Any exceptions to the rate for a particular year would be be approved through the regular approval process of the diocesan budget for such year.

2) Capital Apportionment is calculated as 10% of the congregation's "Funds Received for Capital Projects", reported on Line 8 of the Parochial Report. These apportionment dollars are directed to the capital needs of the diocese and the support of missions.

The apportionment shall be paid on a regular monthly basis throughout the year unless other arrangements are made with approval of the Diocesan Council in advance.

Please refer to Exhibit B for apportionment calculation definitions as they relate to the Parochial Report

Section 1. a. Any congregation in arrears in any amount for the immediately preceding calendar year, or any other preceding year shall be automatically denied the right to voice and vote at the Annual Convention. Section 1. Annual Meeting. A Congregation shall hold an annual meeting every year. Unless otherwise specified in the Congregation's bylaws, the annual meeting of the Congregation shall be within one hundred twenty (120) days before or on the twenty-eighth (28th) day of February.

Section 2. Bylaws. a. A Congregation may adopt bylaws for the governance of the affairs of the Congregation. Bylaws that conflict with the provisions of the Constitution or Canons of the Episcopal Church shall be void. Unless these Canons grant specific authority to the Congregation to adopt an alternative provision, bylaws that conflict with the provisions of the Constitution or Canons of this Diocese shall be void. Should any of the bylaws of a Congregation be found or declared to be invalid or ineffective for any reason, only the provisions specifically found or declared to be invalid or ineffective shall cease to be operative, and the remaining terms and provisions of the bylaws shall continue in full force and effect.

b. A two-thirds (2/3) majority vote of the members of the Congregation present at a properly called and convened congregational meeting is necessary to adopt, amend or repeal any congregational bylaw, unless the bylaws of the Congregation impose a different requirement, in which case the bylaws of the Congregation shall govern.

c. Unless and until a Congregation adopts bylaws in accordance with this Canon, the provisions of these Canons shall govern the affairs of the Congregation.

Section 3. Electors. a. As used in these Canons, an elector is a lay communicant member of a Congregation who is sixteen (16) years of age or over, whose name is duly enrolled as such in the Register of the Congregation, who is regular in attendance at divine services, and who makes stated contributions of record to the general support of the Congregation. A qualified elector of a Congregation is entitled to vote in all congregational elections and on all matters that come before the Congregation for a vote.

b. The vote of no person shall be questioned unless his or her right to vote shall be first challenged by a qualified elector. The bylaws of the Congregation shall provide that, in the event of such challenge, the right of such person shall be passed upon by an independent Qualifications Committee. If the Congregation's bylaws do not otherwise specify, the Qualifications Committee shall consist of three (3) electors appointed by the member of the clergy in charge, or in the event there is no member of the clergy in charge, by the congregational council, and the findings of the Qualifications Committee shall be final and binding.

Section 4. Congregational Council. a. Each Congregation shall have a congregational council, which may be called a vestry or board of trustees or similar name, according to the choice of the Congregation. To be qualified to serve on the congregational council, a person must be an elector of the Congregation and eighteen (18) years of age or older.

b. The Congregation's bylaws shall specify the number of persons serving on the congregational council, which must consist of at least five (5) electors. A majority of the members of the congregational council must be selected by the Congregation.

c. The Congregation's bylaws shall specify the manner the Congregation will use to select persons to serve on the congregational council and as lay Members of Convention. Unless otherwise provided in the bylaws, selection shall be by election by a majority vote of the members of the Congregation present at a properly called and convened congregational meeting.

d. The Congregation's bylaws shall provide for the orderly succession of persons serving on the congregational council. The bylaws shall provide that those elected to the congregational council shall continue in office until their successors are elected and qualified. The bylaws shall provide for staggered terms of service so that approximately the same number of terms on the congregational council are filled each year in rotation, and that no one person shall remain a member of the congregational council for more than six (6) consecutive years. If a person has served on the congregational council for any portion of six (6) of the previous seven (7) years, the person is not eligible to serve as a member of the congregational council for one (1) year.

e. Wardens. The Congregation's bylaws shall provide for the selection of wardens of the Congregation. The Congregation's bylaws shall provide that the term of office for the wardens is one (1) year, and that a person may not serve as a warden for more than three (3) consecutive terms. Unless otherwise provided in the bylaws, the selection of wardens shall take place at the first meeting of the congregational council after a congregation's annual meeting, as follows:

1. The member of the clergy in charge shall appoint one (1) member of the congregational council to serve as the Senior Warden. If the Congregation does not have a member of the clergy in charge, the members of the congregational council shall select the Senior Warden in the same manner as it selects the Junior Warden.

2. The members of the congregational council shall select one (1) member of the congregational council to serve as the Junior Warden. Unless otherwise provided in the bylaws, the selection of the Junior Warden shall be by majority vote of the members of the congregational council.

f. Officers. 1. The congregational council shall annually select a secretary, who need not be a member of the Congregation. The secretary shall ensure that the minutes of congregational council's proceedings are taken and reported, attest to the public acts of the congregational council, preserve all records and papers belonging to the Congregation, perform such other duties as shall be legally assigned, and faithfully deliver into the hands of a successor all books and documents of the Congregation that may be in the secretary's possession.

2. The congregational council shall annually select a treasurer, who need not be a member of the Congregation, to perform the duties incumbent upon that office. The treasurer shall furnish a bond of suitable amount. The books and accounts shall be audited annually and at any other time the congregational council may direct. The offices of secretary and treasurer may both be held by the same person.

g. The congregational council shall hold an annual meeting every year. Unless otherwise specified in the Congregation's bylaws, the annual meeting of the congregational council shall be held within two (2) weeks after the annual meeting of the Congregation. In accordance with the Congregation's bylaws and this Canon, at its annual meeting the congregational council shall turn over the affairs of the Congregation to the congregational council with its newly selected members.

h. The congregational council may hold other meetings at the times specified in the Congregation's bylaws. In all cases, a meeting may be called by the member of the clergy in charge or the Senior Warden. Unless a different number is specified in the Congregation's bylaws, a meeting of the congregational council may also be called at the joint request of two (2) or 25 percent (25%) of the congregational council's members, whichever is the greater number. In the case of a Joint Congregation, consociate clergy may also call a meeting of the congregational council. In the sole discretion of the Bishop, the Bishop may at any time call a meeting of the congregational council of any Congregation and preside at such meeting.

Section 5. Responsibilities of the congregational council. a. It shall be the duty of the wardens and congregational council to protect the properties of the Congregation and to see that all things needed for the orderly worship of God and for the administration of the Sacraments and Ordinances of the Church be provided. Unless otherwise provided in the Congregation's bylaws, in the absence of the member of the clergy in charge, or at the request of the member of the clergy in charge, the Senior Warden shall preside at the meetings of the congregational council and, in the absence of both, the Junior Warden shall preside.

b. It shall be the duty of the congregational council to take charge of the real and personal properties of the Congregation and keep the same fully insured, to provide for the remuneration and reimbursement of the clergy and other ministers and employees serving the Congregation, to prepare a budget providing for the necessary requirements and expenditures of the Congregation, to regulate all its temporal concerns, to keep order in the church during the celebration of Divine worship, and, in general, to act as helpers in whatever is appropriate to laypersons for the furtherance of the Church's welfare.

1. information received in an annual or special report received pursuant to Diocesan Canon VIII; or

2. information received in a statement from the member of the clergy in charge, warden, or congregational council of the Congregation, whether written, oral, electronic, or other form; or

3. a failure to file required reports with, or failure to pay its apportionment to, the Diocese in a timely manner; or

4. a failure or refusal to comply with the terms of a judgment rendered according to the provisions of Title III of the Canons of the Episcopal Church, as amended, relating to the pastoral relationship between the member of the clergy in charge and the Congregation or congregational council; or

5. under exceptional circumstances as determined by the Bishop.

c. Any Congregation that fails to file an annual audit by the deadline specified in Diocesan Canon XIV, or pay its full year's apportionment within thirty (30) days after the final annual due date, shall be referred by the Bishop to the Congregational Development Committee without the concurrence of Diocesan Council.

d. Upon receiving a referral, the Congregational Development Committee shall undertake an inquiry to determine the condition of the Congregation, the background and causes for its current situation. The Committee shall make a report to the Bishop and Diocesan Council regarding its analysis and recommendations to resolve the issues facing the Congregation.

e. If the recommendation of the Congregational Development Committee is that a referred Congregation receive financial support or extraordinary assistance from the Diocese in order to continue operating in accordance with the Constitution and Canons of the Episcopal Church or of this Diocese, and the Bishop and Diocesan Council both approve the recommendation, the Congregation, whether a parish or a mission, shall be considered an Assisted Congregation until Diocesan Council removes the designation.

1. An Assisted Congregation shall be under the guidance of the Congregational Development Committee and the Bishop on a year-by-year basis, as determined and approved by Diocesan Council. During this period, the Committee shall consult with and guide the Assisted Congregation in all facets of its mission, including its leadership and fiscal stability, and any other considerations, with the mutual goal of enabling the Assisted Congregation to become financially stable, self-supporting, and able to operate in accordance with the Constitution and Canons of the Episcopal Church and of this Diocese. During this period, an Assisted Congregation receiving financial assistance from the Diocese is not to be assessed an apportionment share, although the discipline of tithing to the Diocese is to be encouraged.

2. The Bishop shall have the primary responsibility for oversight over all Assisted Congregations. If the Assisted Congregation does not have a member of the clergy in charge of it, the Bishop shall have the authority to appoint a priest-in-charge or a lay minister to serve the Congregation temporarily and, in the Bishop's sole discretion, to remove any appointed person.

3. With the prior approval of the Bishop and Diocesan Council, an Assisted Congregation, in consultation with the Congregational Development Committee, may call a person to serve as the member of the clergy to be in charge of the Congregation, using the usual Diocesan call process. The stipend and other compensation of a member of the clergy or a lay minister appointed or called to serve an Assisted Congregation, as well as any other financial assistance deemed advisable, shall be established by the Bishop and approved by Diocesan Council in consultation with the Congregational Development Committee.

4. The term Financial Assistance, as used in this Canon, does not include any diocesan or other funds awarded, granted or otherwise given to a Congregation, that were not part of the analysis and recommendation of the Congregational Development Committee made pursuant to this Canon.

5. An Assisted Congregation may be removed from that status upon the recommendation of the Congregational Development Committee and the approval of Diocesan Council and the Bishop.

f. Upon approval of Diocesan Council and the Bishop, the status of a parish may be changed to that of a mission in either of the following cases:

1.Pursuant to their duties under Canons VI and VII of the Canons of this Diocese, and in compliance with the bylaws of the congregation, the Congregational Council and the member of the clergy in charge of the parish voluntarily consent to the change in status.

2.The parish has been an Assisted Congregation for at least the three (3) prior consecutive years and the Congregational Development Committee reports that it is not likely that within the next six (6) months the Congregation will become financially stable, self-supporting, and able to operate in accordance with the Constitution and Canons of the Episcopal Church and of this Diocese. In actions under Section 6.f.2., the affirmative vote of two-thirds (2/3) of the Members of Convention voting at a meeting of the Convention shall be necessary to change the status of the parish to a mission.

Section 7. Suspension or dissolution of a Congregation. a. A Congregation may be suspended from membership in the Convention, or its membership in the Convention may be terminated and dissolved, only upon an affirmative vote by two-thirds (2/3) of the members of Diocesan Council and ratified by an affirmative vote by two-thirds (2/3) of the Members of Convention voting at a meeting of the Convention, and based only on grounds provided in this Canon.

b. Grounds for suspension or termination of membership in the Convention are:

1. a Congregation requests suspension or termination of membership in the Convention by a vote of two-thirds (2/3) of the members of record of the Congregation in a properly called and convened congregational meeting; or

2. the Congregational Development Committee recommends suspension or termination of an Assisted Congregation's membership in the Convention because that Congregation is unable to become stable and self-sustaining, or because it is unable to operate in accordance with the Constitution and Canons of the Episcopal Church and of this Diocese, and that suspending or terminating the congregation's membership is in the best interests of the mission of the Diocese; or

3. a Congregation, in a duly called and convened congregational meeting, votes to rescind its accession to the Doctrine, Discipline, and Worship of the Episcopal Church, or to the Constitution and Canons set forth by General Convention without exception, amendment, proviso or addition, or to the Constitution and Canons of this Diocese without exception, amendment, proviso or addition.

c. The title to all real and personal property of a Congregation whose membership in the Convention has been suspended, or terminated and dissolved, shall immediately vest in the Diocese.

This consultation shall be for the purposes of determining the ways that an existing Congregation might support the Associated Worshiping Community with prayer, resources and fellowship. The application of the Associated Worshiping Community shall be approved provided it receives the positive recommendation of the Congregational Development Committee, and the approval of the Bishop, Diocesan Council, and at least one (1) of the Congregations with which the Congregational Development Committee consulted during the application process.

Section 4. The Bishop shall report to the annual meeting of the Convention regarding the Associated Worshiping Communities that have been formed during the previous year, and the nature of the ministry of each.

Section 5. a. An Associated Worshiping Community shall be under the direction of the Congregational Development Committee and the Bishop for five (5) years. During this period, the Congregational Development Committee shall consult with and guide the Associated Worshiping Community in its mission and ministry, including the choice of a name, formation of a congregational council, fiscal stability, and any other considerations, with the mutual goal of enabling the associated worshiping community to become a Congregation. During the five (5) year period, the Associated Worshiping Community is not to be assessed an apportionment share, although the discipline of tithing to the Diocese is to be encouraged.

b. If the Associated Worshiping Community has not become a Congregation at the end of five (5) years, the Congregational Development Committee shall make a recommendation to the Bishop and Diocesan Council as to whether the Associated Worshiping Community should remain in that status on a year-to-year basis, become an assisted congregation, or should have its relationship with the Diocese terminated. The determination as to the status of the Associated Worshiping Community shall then be made by the Bishop with the approval of Diocesan Council.
